◆ Clint Mathis - Pro Staff

24-year old Clint Mathis, midfielder/forward for the MLS New York/ New Jersey MetroStars, has quickly established himself as one of the more promising young players in the U.S. National Team pool. In college, Clint was a two-time NCAA All-American and a three-time finalist for the Hermann Award. In 1998, Clint was drafted in the first round by the MLS L.A. Galaxy. Traded in 2000 to the MetroStars, Clint was the second leading scorer for the 2000 MLS season and set a league record with 5 goals in one game. Including his MLS successes, Clint has been a mainstay in the U.S. National Team side instrumental in their 2002 World Cup qualification and scored the lone U.S. goal against Korea in 2002 World Cup pool play.

Clint played youth club soccer in Atlanta for Phil Neddo, the Pro-Xtreme Camp Director. While there he took his club team to the National Championships in 1996.

◆ Marshall Leonard - Pro Staff
