Camp Coaches

Camp Director: Briana O'Dowd

Honolulu Bulls Soccer Club Staff Coach
 Honolulu Bulls Soccer Club Coaching Coordinator

Camp Staff Coach: Josh Fouts

Josh Fouts enters his first season with the Hawai'i program after two years coaching both the men's and women's goalkeepers at his alma mater, Gonzaga. As a player, Fouts earned second-team all-West Coast Conference second team honors three times and led the Bulldogs to back-to-back co-WCC titles in 1997 and '98. Fouts capped his career by setting a record 0.83 career goals against average and was named Gonzaga Bulldog Club Senior Male Athlete of the Year. A WCC all-Academic selection, Fouts graduated from GU in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in special education.

Fouts continued his career professionally with the Boston Bulldogs of the USISL A-League. In 2000, he played for the Carolina Dynamo of the USISL Third-Division League.

Camp Staff Coach: Michael Luken

Michael Luken played NCAA Division I soccer with Loyola Marymount University. While playing goalkeeper for LMU from 1990-1993, he earned Second All-Team West Coast Conference honors, led the West Coast Conference in saves for three seasons, set the LMU team record for most career saves, and served as team captain for two years. Upon graduation, Mike became the LMU goalkeeper coach until 1997 when he left the southern California area after joining the U.S. Navy. For the last three years, Mike has been associated with the All Navy Soccer Team either as a player or assistant trainer/coach concentrating on goalkeeping. Mike has worked with several soccer clinics and is a recent addition to the Honolulu Bulls Soccer Club.
