Message from the President

Happy New Year One and All!

2006 certainly went out in grand style with a very successful Ninth Annual ProXtreme Holiday Camp. Once again, Brian Ching, alumnus extraordinaire, was the main attraction; and after his great year (World Cup, MLS Championship and MVP, Goal of the Year), it was even more of an honor to have him return for this year's camp. The Honorable Mayor, Mufi Hannemann, wanted to bestow special recognition to this highly successful Hawaiian athlete; and did so in front of the assembled campers by proclaiming Brian a "Honolulu Hero" and by handing him the Key to the City. Brian appeared to be as surprised as the campers were in awe.

DOC Neddo had a goal of 200 campers for the 2006 ProXtreme; the final number was 205! Board member Bill Brennan, coaches Kerry Miike and Kenji Treschuk, among others, blitzed Midweek and several elementary schools in the two weeks prior to camp. Their efforts pushed the numbers over our stated goal. Hard work always pays off, so thanks all. Pictures of the camp can be seen at www.midweek.com in the January 5, 2007 edition.

In spite of the rain and gusty winds on the third day, the camp was phenomenal. Lorna Lum, Miles Tsuruoka and their team parents provided breakfast and lunch each day. The "grinds" were much appreciated by all of the staff. Campers, volunteers and college coaches all seemed to relish rubbing shoulders with the pros. Joining Brian from the MLS were Jeff Cassar (FC Dallas Goalkeeper) and Duke Hashimoto (Real Salt Lake). Ted Eck, formally of the Dallas Burn and now coaching with Maui United, returned for his second ProXtreme experience. Each day the campers were taught the proper techniques of passing, receiving and shooting.

Wouldn't it be great to have all of the previous camps' professionals return for the Tenth Annual Camp?

Kudos to the following for making the camp even that much more memorable:

HMSA, sponsorship;

Tim Brubaker, rounds of golf for the pros;

Ron and Karli Tario, spa sessions and cooking for the post-scrimmage potluck;

Connie and Bradley Balanay, bottled water donation;

Miles and Debbie Adachi, bottled water donation;

Jayson and Vicky Mitsunaga, bottled water donation;

'88 Girls team, bottled water donation;

Glen Okazaki, ice cream and ice delivery;

Lorna Lum and Miles Tsuruoka, breakfast and lunch;

Kawika Del Rosario, Kaneohe Bay boating excursion;

Lorie Chang, ice cream and coffee donation; and, of course,

The terrific cadre of youth volunteers, college coaches and Bulls' staff.

Following the camp, the Club hosted a dinner at the Waikiki Yacht Club to wrap things up and celebrate the year. This year, the Board wanted to reinstitute the handing out of certain awards. Voting was open to all club members via email to Coach Neddo; the response was overwhelming. Honored were Brian Ching, Alumnus next set of exciting events for the Club. The coaching staff is already planning the next Hawaii International cup (HIC). So life goes on. Good luck this season to all of the players and coaches. Let's hope 2007 is just as exciting and eventful as last year.
